

275 Million Births and Deaths

Original title: 275 Million Births and Deaths

Is life worth passing on? Will the world be liveable in 30 years? Do I sacrifice my personal freedom? In 275 Million Births and Deaths visual artist Zam Zadeh shares her doubts about whether she wants to bring a child into this world. Meanwhile, the clock is ticking. She takes the viewer on an imaginary train ride through time and space to seek advice from her female ancestors. Three generations of Iranian women share their experience with us and challenge Zam's doubts with their tales of personal happiness, responsibility and love.
