

Austral

Original title: Austral

At the end of the world, day in, day out, three men take on the Southern Ocean and its legends. They leave their families and brave the cold and the storms to join the fishermen in the isolated Cape Horn islands. Some launch themselves into these epic channels through greed, others for love of the sea, or through family need, but all agree on the importance of carrying on this endangered traditional way of life and the brotherhood it creates.
