

BIM The Movie

Original title: BIM De film

According to tradition, Europe's church bells fly to Rome just before Easter to gather Easter eggs. In Bim, the eggs are not made of chocolate but crystal, and one of them holds the magic elixir that awakens spring across the land on Easter Sunday. Although inspired by Christian tradition, the focus is on the universal values of friendship, honesty and the freedom to express who you really are. A family adventure, with comical undertones and magic-realist elements.
