

BIM

Original title: BIM

Bim is an animation series consisting of seven 10-minute episodes which also go together to make up one full-length film. It is a family adventure series with comical undertones and magic/realistic elements. Bim is inspired by a European Easter tradition, which tells us that church bells fly to Rome just before Easter to gather Easter eggs. In our story, the eggs are not made of chocolate but are crystal, one of which holds the magic elixir that awakens Spring across the land on Easter Sunday. Though inspired by Christian tradition, the focus instead is on the universal values of friendship, honesty and the freedom to express who you really are.
