

Canned

Original title: Canned

Fourteen-year-old Sam is being bullied at school and takes refuge under a desk. In desperation, he puts the teacher's fishbowl over his head to protect himself from his tormentor. As he walks down the school's dark hallway, he glimpses his reflection. Seeing himself distorted by the bowl, his anxieties grow as he tries to shape his body to fit inside. When he encounters his mother, she reaches out to help him, but Sam remains hidden in his protective shell, unsure if he can face the world outside.
