

Carrousel

Original title: Carrousel

Rose lives, together with her snails, in a park: a well-organised system; a small microcosm. The only threat comes from predator birds that like to eat snails. That is, until the arrival of two newcomers. While they fall in love, Rose feels attacked. She withdraws into herself and becomes aggressive to defend her way of life, to the point of hurting others. A stop-motion animated film about dehumanisation.
