

Chickenhare and the Hamster of Darkness

Original title: Hopper en de Hamster der Duisternis

Young Chickenhare is the adopted son of King Peter, a famous adventurer. Part chicken and part hare, he has a really tough time growing up, and disguises himself as a pure hare to avoid being teased by his peers. But it's this disguise that gets in the way when he enters the trials for the Royal Adventurer Society. Determined to redeem himself, he sets out to find the Sceptre of the Hamster of Darkness, racing his evil Uncle Lapin to the prize. Accompanied by his faithful servant Abe, a sarcastic turtle, and Meg, a martial arts expert skunk, Chickenhare sets off on an epic, life-changing quest.

CREDITS

DIRECTOR: Ben Stassen, Benjamin Mousquet

PRODUCER: Matthieu Zeller

WRITER: David Collard

CREATION DETAILS

TYPE: Film

PRODUCTION SHARE: Minority Flemish co-production

GENRE: Adventure, Family, Children's

YEAR OF PRODUCTION: 2022

PRODUCTION STATUS: Completed

ORIGINAL TITLE: Hopper en de Hamster der Duisternis

TECHNICAL SPECS

RUNNING TIME: 91'

CONTACT & SALES

CONTACT

nWave Pictures

T +32 2 347 63 19

aclemhout@nwave.com

MORE INFO

flandersimage.com