

F is for ...

Original title: F is for ...

The six girls of the cheerleading group Axclusive, all aged 13 and 14, come together twice a week for their cheer training. The girls work hard for an important competition they really want to win but, more importantly, they find in each other an outlet for all their teenage drama. Team spirit and trust are not only crucial in cheerleading itself, but also within the group of friends. Despite their differences, the girls are close and becoming even closer as they prepare for the competition.
