

Real Faces

Original title: Real Faces

At the age of 29, casting agent Julia relocates to Brussels for a job in the advertising industry. There she meets Elliott, a reclusive microbiologist in his early thirties who studies lichen. Intrigued by their contrasting professions and personalities, Julia and Elliott slowly grow closer. Assigned to an important perfume ad, Julia has the ultimate opportunity to prove herself, but the pressure is intense. Julia loses herself. She starts to cross people's boundaries, including Elliott's. Things spiral out of control, and Julia finally decides to take her life in her own hands.
