

Retro Therapy

Original title: Retro Therapy

Manon, an introverted 16-year-old, is forced to live with her insufferable grandmother Yvonne, a former feminist activist suffering from Alzheimer's disease. Things take a turn for the worse when Yvonne, confused, starts mistaking Manon for her daughter. Unexpectedly, Manon decides to take on the role of her mother, who she hardly knew, and gets involved in Yvonne's delusions. This is an opportunity for her to discover the true history of the women in her family and to learn, in turn, how to become a woman herself.
