

Revolution in Indonesia

Original title: Revolutie in Indonesië

In this three-part documentary series, Belgian historian David Van Reybrouck goes in search of the last remaining witnesses to the end of Dutch colonialism in Indonesia, in the 1940s and 1950s. Bringing an international perspective to this historic decolonisation process, he talks to surviving protagonists from Indonesia and the Netherlands, and to others whose role has previously remained in the shadows.

CREDITS

DIRECTOR: Djoeka Veeninga, Marlou van den Berge

PRODUCER: Bart Van Langendonck

CAST: David Van Reybrouck

EDITING: Hinne Brouwer

PHOTOGRAPHY: Marlou van den Berge

TECHNICAL SPECS

RUNNING TIME: 3 x 45'

CONTACT & SALES

CONTACT

New Ams Film Company B.V.

T +31 (0)20 820 23 08

contact@newams.com

CREATION DETAILS

TYPE: Series

PRODUCTION SHARE: Minority Flemish co-production

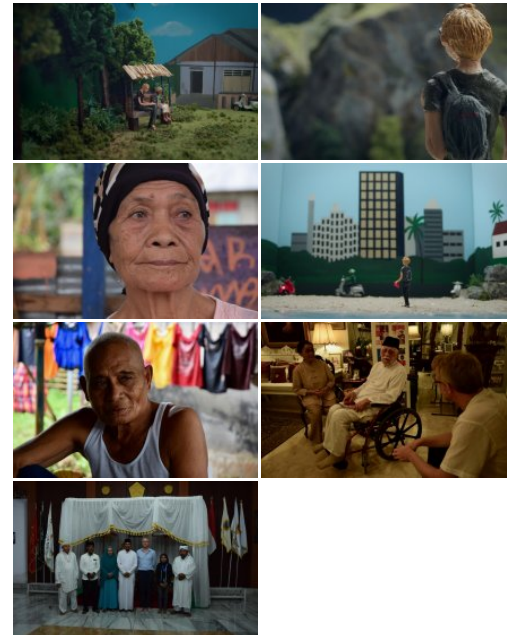

GENRE: Documentary, Historical

YEAR OF PRODUCTION: 2021

PRODUCTION STATUS: Completed

ORIGINAL TITLE: Revolutie in Indonesië

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE: Dutch

MORE INFO

flandersimage.com