

So Much

Original title: Zoveel

He has been convicted of involuntary manslaughter; she waited a year to visit him in prison. They had something special once though few words were used - in hindsight, maybe far too few - but that's all they can do now... talk. He longs hopelessly for the past while she wants to know the truth about that fateful night. Neither of them will get what they wish as, after all, he hasn't killed just anyone...
