

Sudden Rain

Original title: Sudden Rain

Thirty-year-old Lei finds herself in Marseille for a research trip, with the task of interviewing Qiu, a woman of her own age and background. Despite being preoccupied with worries back home in Lyon, she tries to concentrate on her assignment. The two Chinese women spend several days together in Qiu's 19th floor apartment overlooking the city, reflecting on their shared histories, shedding light on what holds them back in life. It's a conversation that ultimately changes Lei's understanding of her own circumstances.
