

The Forbidden Call – Women Priests

Original title: The Forbidden Call - Women Priests

This film follows a group of determined, thoughtful women who feel a deep calling to serve as Catholic priests. Despite their unwavering faith and dedication, they face an immovable obstacle: the Vatican's ban on women's ordination. Driven by their faith and a quest for answers, they journey into the depths of the Catholic hierarchy, examining how ancient traditions clash with modern calls for equality. As they navigate the corridors of religious power, their investigation reveals complex questions about faith, gender and the evolution of spiritual leadership in the 21st century.
