

The Magician

Original title: The Magician

Dara is staying in an asylum centre outside Brussels, where he is working on an adaptation of The Tempest. Jina, a mysterious woman in a tree, is angry that Dara has cast only men in his play. Two days before his premiere, Dara is accused of arson and must find the only witness who can exonerate him: Iman, who plays the role of the magician Prospero. But Iman has vanished. Distraught, Dara returns to the centre, where Jina also seems to have gone up in smoke. On the night of the premiere, Dara stands in the wings. To the sound of heavy rain and thunder, Jina steps onto the stage.
