

The Waste Land

Original title: The Waste Land

The Waste Land is a film that delves deeply into the complex tapestry of TS Eliot's famous poem of the same name. Written in a time of crisis and uncertainty, the poem resonates with the challenges of our own era, such as climate change, political instability, and the quest for new meaning in a rapidly changing world. In the film, the layered voices of noted writers, scholars, and philosophers add depth to Eliot's poetry and create a call for reflection and action. An emotional journey that encourages understanding of the deeper meaning of Eliot's words in the light of the challenges of our own time.

CREDITS

DIRECTOR: Chris Teerinck
PRODUCER: Mark Daems
EDITING: Chris Teerinck
PHOTOGRAPHY: Chris Teerinck

CREATION DETAILS

TYPE: Film
PRODUCTION SHARE: Minority Flemish
co-production
GENRE: Documentary, Hybrid, Experimental
YEAR OF PRODUCTION: 2024
PRODUCTION STATUS: Completed
ORIGINAL TITLE: The Waste Land
ORIGINAL LANGUAGE: English

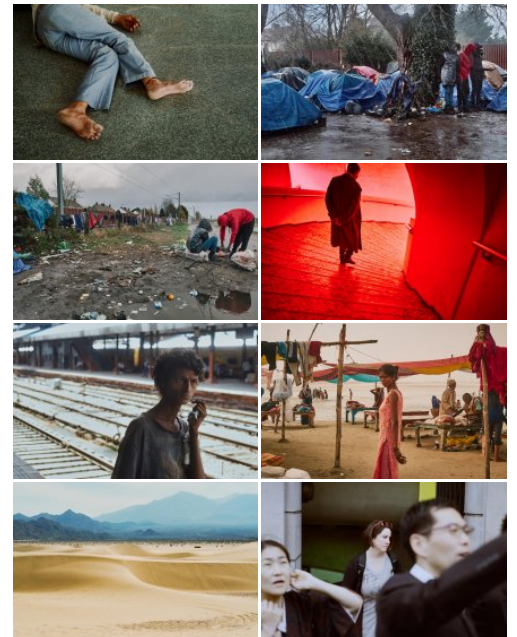

TECHNICAL SPECS

RUNNING TIME: 105'
AVAILABLE IN: 2D
ASPECT RATIO: 1.85:1
SOUND FORMAT: 5.1 (+sub)
RELEASE FORMAT: 4K
COLOUR: Colour

CONTACT & SALES

CONTACT

Associate Directors bv
T +32 3 236 66 63
info@adirectors.be

MORE INFO

<https://adirector.eu/film-waste-land> flandersimage.com